

6th Grade Summer Reading

6th grade needs to complete two assignments.

Choose 2 books to read from the 6th grade summer reading list, and then complete the following:

6th reading list

1. Hoot by Carol Hiaasen
2. Brainwashed: Crime Travelers Book 1 by Paul Aertker
3. Nine, Ten, A September 11 Story by Nora Raleigh Baskin
4. Counting by 7's by Holly Goldberg Sloan
5. The Hiding Place by Corrie ten Boom
6. Okay for Now by Gary D.Schmidt
7. Out of my Mind by Sharon M.Draper
8. A Long Walk to Remember by Linda Sue Park
9. Inside and Out by Thanna Lai
10. The Crossover by Kwame Alexander

First Book:

If you could change the ending of one of the books you have chosen, what would it be like? Describe your ending if you could rewrite it. You may change aspects of the plot, setting, characters, etc. for your version. Please write 5 paragraphs. It can be typed or hand written.

Second Book:

Pretend I am your boss at an advertising agency, and you want me to choose your advertisement because it would persuade people to buy it. Choose a book, and create an advertisement power point presentation to promote the book. Pretend that you are trying to sell millions of copies of this book. Your advertisement should create excitement when a potential customer reads its description. Show symbolism in the graphics you choose to include in your power point presentation. Your power point presentation should contain at least 5 slides, describing and promoting the book you chose. Include graphics with captions in your power point presentation. Be as creative as you want, but remember to use descriptive writing in your captions.
